Neil as
CHARLES WESLEY

Over two million people in the last thirty-five years have experienced Neil's unique way of preaching. Time and time again he is asked to return to churches so that his other characters may be enjoyed. It is not just the original scripts, nor the makeup, nor costuming that transforms Neil into one of his characters. It is the way he absorbs the spirit of the man.

...thank you for your part in our Central New York Annual Conference Session. Your Portrayal of Charles Wesley was exceedingly well done and brought a great deal of pleasure and inspiration to our people.
- Warren G. Odom
Central N.Y. Methodist Conference Council

You are a blessing as God's disciple. We enjoy you sharing so many well known men of the past and helping us really know them better.

- Linda Cooper, Sr. Citizen Prog. Dir.
Wayside Baptist Church, Miami, FL

The World of Charles Wesley

You have sung his hymns, now meet the man, a delightful 18th century English clergyman. With a piercing cry for the role of Christianity in the world and a sense of humor, he intriguingly compares 18th century England and 21st century America.

Francis Asbury, The Tireless Itinerant

This transplanted Englishman became the epitome of an early American: hardheaded, stubborn, undaunted by this new land. As a young America moved out into the wilderness, this totally dedicated, tireless itinerant preacher led an ever increasing number of Methodist missionaries westward, not for land nor gold, but to spread the Word of God.

MARTIN LUTHER

The World of Martin Luther

The composer of A Mighty Fortress Is Our God was the father of the Protestant movement. This old German monk has come back to tell of his life and times. His emphasis on Salvation by Grace has lines you will be quoting for a long, long while.

This fictional story weaves the life of the forgiven thief on the cross with the true story of the life of Christ. An adaptation of Neil's nationally syndicated radio script, this journey from the manger to Golgotha captivates an audience.

I have seen Neil in two of his roles: Martin Luther and Charles Wesley...a magnificent job portraying these persons with great understanding and feeling. He has the ability of actively accomplishing audience participation with the character's life and times as no one I've ever seen.

Dr. W. Rollie Clark, Director
FL Beacon Hill College & Seminary

Bravo! You really knocked everyone out. Thanks for a splendid job.

- R. Barnwell Hill, President
Florida Speakers Assoc.

Neil as
FRANCIS ASBURY

Dysmas, The Penitent Thief

Neil as
DYSMAS

...more of a sensation than any other program I have brought to campus in the three years that I have run the Artist Series.

Lt. Colonel C.A. Olsen (Ret.)
Asbury College (Professor Ret.)

It was a beautiful and moving portrayal and we are grateful to Mr. Wyrick for his talents and skills.

- Timothy Croft, Minister
Miami Shores Presbyterian Church, FL
