Samuel Clemens as portrayed over two thousand times in the past twenty years by the nationally renowned and inimitable, McAvoy Layne.

Hear the first-person account of the life and times of one of America's most beloved authors and commentators

Take a stagecoach ride back in time to the Old West and a wide open frontier, with its six-shooters and corner saloons, gold rushers and outlaws, just waiting for civilization to catch up with them.

The Mississippi river boatman would cry, "Mark Twain!" and the depth of the water would be measured by the twain mark on the sounding line, leading the curious rascalion Samuel Clemens to adopt his world famous pen name, and assuring the boat safe water.

As seen on A&E's Biography, in the Discovery Channel's award-winning documentary, The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn and among Nevada Magazine's list of "top attractions"

*I still believe you do Twain better than Twain!!
Thanks for another brilliant evening"*
