Jeff Evans

Motivational; Teamwork; Goal setting; Accountability; Commitment and Leadership

Incorporating many stunning images and videos from his global adventures, Jeff recounts his role as the primary guide for a blind climber and then creating the systems of communication necessary to guide him successfully on mountains all over the world, culminating with the summit of Mt Everest. Just in the past year, Jeff served as the Expedition Leader for the groundbreaking Soldiers To The Summit Himalayan Expedition as well as appeared in ABC's new hit adventure series, Expedition Impossible.

During each of his seven keynote programs, Jeff draws on many of the metaphors hidden in the world of adventure and brings them to his audience in a humorously inspiring way. These messages are funny, potent and tactile; reminding his audiences that it is critical to focus on creating a powerful and selfless team, seek out opportunities to be a leader and disregard the expectations others create in order to achieve your own potential.

The MountainVision message is resonating now more than ever due to the economic challenges and uncertainty every industry is facing. Jeff brings the perspective of "the guide" to each of his keynote addresses. Companies and organizations are truly relating to the responsibilities of being a guide for their clients and customers during this storm. Jeff's program "Guiding Through the Storm" centers around guiding and leadership in this volatile period we are all facing. And if Leadership is what your group is looking to build on... Jeff is now able to facilitate the Franklin Covey Everest Leadership Program in an intense and powerful breakout session.

About Jeff Evans and MountainVision Presentations

Jeff has a unique perspective on the topics of Leadership, Teamwork and Commitment because he has lived them. Seventeen years ago he electively chose to be the primary guide for then unknown blind climber Erik Weihenmayer on mountains, rock faces and adventure races all over the world...even after many established guides had passed at the opportunity. Jeff worked with Erik on creating a climbing vision, establishing an acceptable definition of success and refining effective methods of communication, all innovative and challenging.

Jeff is a proud member of New York City's prestigious Explorers Club, the published author of MountainVision: Lessons Beyond the Summit, a practicing Emergency Medicine Physician Assistant and appears as one of the main characters in two different award-winning documentaries, Farther Than the Eye Can See, Blindsight and the soon to be released Soldiers To The Summit documentary.

From the summit of Mt Everest back to the board room, these messages work.

Let's put them into action.

Incorporate Jeff's new autobiographical book into your event and send the audience home with a hardcopy version of the MountainVision tales...

MountainVision: Lessons Beyond the Summit

What they are saying about MountainVision...

"As I read I found myself totally engrossed. It was captivating, full of suspense and adventure. In each wonderful chapter Jeff intertwined a lesson on leadership. The likes of Norman Vincent Peale (The Power of Positive Thinking), Zig Ziglar and Andrew Carnegie popped into mind. I've read self-help and motivational messages from them all. But Jeff Evans' words were uniquely different. They captured me. His messages were genuine. I have even a greater respect for this man now. I knew many of the stories, but... WOW!"

"Reading Jeff's messages made me want to improve my life, be a better person, be kinder, work harder, etc. He eloquently explained through his larger than life triumphs and conversely his devastating troubles on the mountains how failure can actually help us improve if we let it. His generosity, humility, selfless service and his life are—and will be—an example to me and countless others for many years to come."

"...this book should be mandatory reading for every student, every teacher, every sports team, every business group, congregation, military unit, police department, and in short, every parent and every child."

TESTIMONIALS:

"I must say that we had a very small number of people who initially remarked before the presentation "why are we listening to a mountain climber?" It took them less than two minutes to get it. I would have to say that I don't believe I've ever heard and seen a speaker that captured and captivated the attention of the entire audience for seventy minutes the way Jeff Evans did. I didn't see a head move of one of the 150 people in the audience for the entire presentation. Not just because of the events he described but also because of his very poignant messages regarding the leadership and teamwork required for not only "having a vision to reaching your summit" but also to actually reach that summit." - Dave

Reynolds, Executive Director, National EYEPA Coalition

"Jeff shared with a Japanese audience his themes of vision, preparation, commitment, teambuilding; showing the audience the patience and courage it took while facing fear and adversity during the climb; and celebration of victory with teamwork, support and individual sacrifice – all presented in a most convincing and inspiring way, that undoubtedly contribute to each one's life. I would like to thank you once again, and hope you will carry on demonstrating your unique story to as many people as possible, so that people are encouraged to live their life no matter what happens." - Chieko

Maruyama, CEO - Open Sense Co., Ltd.

"Spectacular....still buzzing about Jeff's message." - Stephanie Jelsin, Sales - Sanofi-Aventis

"Jeff was the best speaker any of us can remember." - Sarah Redding, Marketing Division - Sprint Communications

For each presentation, Jeff customizes the content to meet the needs and expectations of the hosting company. Dependent on the type of engagement Jeff is speaking at and the current challenges and opportunities the respective company or organization is facing, Jeff defines and refines the applicable MountainVision themes to ensure the most effective presentation.
